

Semaj Garrett

Associate

Determined. Innovative. Results Driven.

Semaj is an empathic advocate that will zealously fight in your defense. She is known for being goal-oriented and charismatic. Her thirst for success will allow her to take on any case with confidence, even in the most challenging situations. With a focus on outstanding client service, Semaj offers poise, passion, and persistence tailored to each client's needs.

UNIQUE PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Born in Fort Worth and raised in Arlington, Semaj earned her law degree from the University of North Texas at Dallas College of Law in May 2021. Semaj's academic success equipped her to become a first-generation college graduate and first-generation Doctor of Jurisprudence, which shows her commitment and dedication to any task she has at hand as well as her grit to overcome any obstacle placed in her way. Before becoming a first-generation Doctor of Jurisprudence, Semaj attended the University of North Texas in Denton. She obtained her Bachelor's Degree while working full-time for a Fortune 500 Company. In addition to her nearly 12 years of experience in Corporate America, she provides an invaluable entrepreneurial skillset that allows her to navigate and resolve any client's issue with ease.

SERVANT LEADERSHIP

Semaj brings a servant leadership approach to winning cases. Semaj is ready and willing to spend as much time as it takes meeting with clients, understanding their needs, and breaking down the complex legal process. Over the years, she has been a pillar in her community through her active participation and willingness to serve others. She is the President of the HOA in her community, the past President of the Christian Legal Society at UNT Dallas College of Law, and she leads the marriage ministry (with her husband) at their local church. Semaj desires to create a legacy for her children rooted in a sound education and solid principles while also being a tangible example of legal excellence for others in her community.
