

Ann Austin

Partner

Persistent. Tenacious. Committed.

Ann joins Stewart Law Group bringing with her thirty-plus years of solid Litigation and Management skills, with experiences in insurance defense litigation, litigation management, construction law, and employment law.

Her continued diligence has guided her to a trial strategy to win her cases when representing clients in the courtroom.

THE CLIENT COMES FIRST. IT'S AS SIMPLE AS THAT.

Born and raised in Texas, Ann graduated from South Texas College of Law, clerking throughout law school. She began her career as a law clerk, clerking for the Hon. Hal M. Lattimore at the Second Court of Appeals. Her years as insurance defense counsel bring credentials in various areas of the law. Here, she learned to analyze all sides of a case, not merely one or another.

Before joining Stewart Law Group, Ann successfully defended insurance companies and corporations in the areas of trucking, products liability, premises liability, construction defects, and employment law. She has successfully tried federal and state cases in multi-party lawsuits and suits with high exposure. Ann has mediated a significant number of cases. Working toward settlement is also a goal if this is the client's preference.

Ann has built a solid reputation as an insurance defense litigator, protecting clients when thrown into the legal arena. The client's concerns are of primary importance.
