

Conrad W. John

Senior Associate

Optimistic. Reliable. Adaptable.

Conrad's strategic game plan is to determine the facts quickly, identify the core issues, and present and provide solutions to get the desired results.

CONRAD IS A TRAINED ATTORNEY WHO IS READY TO BE ON DEFENSE FOR HIS CLIENTS.

Conrad is an Associate on the Commercial Litigation, Labor, Employment, Investigations, and Insurance Defense Teams. He brings seven years of experience where he has developed a versatile and collaborative work style. Conrad received his J.D. from the Texas Southern University, Thurgood Marshall School of Law.

Conrad's drive stems from his family. Conrad's parent's sacrifice and dedication to his education and personal development. His family is from Sierra Leone, West Africa, and he is a first-generation college graduate and attorney. Conrad comes from a culturally diverse family; his experiences have shaped how he approaches life with humility and treats people respectfully.

Conrad sets himself apart from other attorneys in Commercial Litigation, Labor and Employment, Personal Injury Litigation, and Insurance Defense by being open and personal. He strives to ensure he is attentive to his client's concerns to provide prompt and effective responses to said concerns.

Conrad is eager to learn to become a more effective attorney while remaining dependable, precise, and resilient. His experience has given him unique insight into how those he goes up against prosecute their cases, an insight he uses to create winning strategies for his clients.

In any case, Conrad puts the client first with frequent updates and strategy sessions to make them feel at ease through resolution and to effectively get the results his client needs.

CONRAD'S BACKGROUND
